

The MCH handbook in Thailand for the promotion of the first 1000 days of life

Dr. Panpimol Wipulakorn

Director General of the Department of Health

11th International Conference on Maternal and Child Health Handbook

The First 1000 days of life as a priority

- ❖ National Strategic plan for 20 years
- ❖ 12th National Economic and Social Development Plan
- ❖ 12th Health Development Plan (5-year)

MCH policies and programs

Goal

Reducing mortality & morbidity and then improving quality of life

Concept

Providing continuum of care for mother and child

SMH (1988)

BFHI (1991)

FLBH (2007)

Routine MCH
standard (2015)

Infrastructures for MCH Health Services

Availability

There is 1 hospital for each district
-Almost 1000 hospitals throughout country-

Accessibility

Universal Health Coverage scheme provide benefit package for pregnancy + childbirth + Well baby clinic Services

Quality of Service delivery

Hospitals provides cares according to the national standard

Health Data center

- Routine hospital- based electronic record
- Health information for monitor and improve services

Home-based medical record

- MCH Handbook for all pregnant women, mothers and children

Evolution of MCH handbook in Thailand

1985

1992-1995

1996

1997-2001

2002

2003-2006

2007-2015

2016-2017

2018

Thai
MCH Handbook

Non-Thai
MCH Handbook

2012

Current MCH handbook in Thailand

Pink Book

- Health records & screening results
- Information for self-care and health promotion

DSPM (2015)

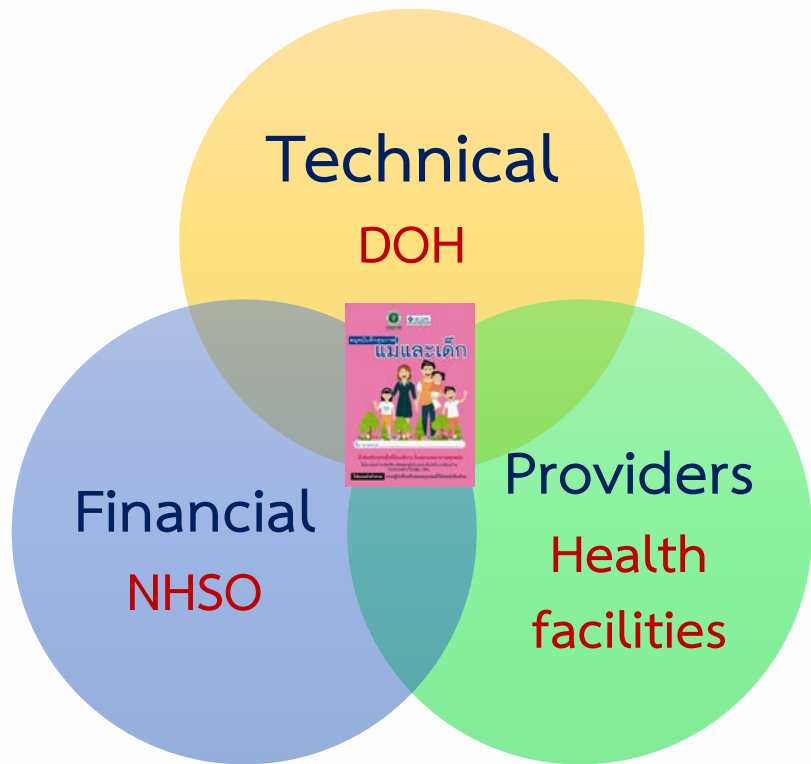

Developmental Surveillance and Promotion Manual for normal child

DAIM (2015)

Developmental Assessment for Intervention Manual for high risk child

Key success and expected results

Country ownership

Participation from users and partners

Thank you for your attention